SUMMER SESSION OF 1952

History  The Middlebury College Language Schools were the pioneers in the development of segregated, specialized summer schools for the study of modern languages in this country. The German School was founded in 1915, followed by the French and Spanish Schools in 1916 and 1917 respectively. These schools represented a distinctive contribution to educational progress in America, and quickly won for Middlebury an international reputation. In 1920, the Bread Loaf School of English was begun on a similar pattern. The German School was reopened in 1931 and after twenty summers in the village of Bristol, returned to the Middlebury campus last summer. In 1932, the Italian School was added; and the Russian School in 1945.

The Idea  These schools stand for thorough training in a modern foreign language. They aim to give a mastery of the spoken and written language, and an intimate knowledge of the life, institutions, literature, history, and culture of the foreign country. Success hinges upon the consistent enforcement of the Middlebury idea—the segregation of students from contact with English; the concentration of the work of each student upon the foreign language; the exclusive use of the language in and out of the classroom; and the careful supervision and coordination of courses to meet the different needs of all students. Each school has its separate residences and dining halls and a faculty of native instructors. During the entire session, the foreign language is the sole medium of communication in work and play. From the day of arrival, students are pledged to speak the foreign language.

Objectives  Throughout their history, the schools have been primarily devoted to the intensive preparation of teachers of languages. In time of peace and in time of war, they have also provided trained linguists for our armed services, and for many specialized government agencies. Language training is essential for those who participate in international organizations, whether political, military, or cultural. All those for whom understanding, speaking, reading, and writing a foreign language is of primary importance, will find at Middlebury ideal conditions for the pursuit of their special objectives. The fundamental ideal of the Language Schools of Middlebury College is to help achieve a durable peace and real international cooperation, based on an understanding of our cultural heritage and the thought processes of our neighbors in a small world.
Academic Status  The quality of instruction offered at the Middlebury Schools is well known. As compared with foreign travel or study, a summer session here is more economical, provides courses better suited to the needs of American teachers, and gives an uninterrupted and intensive training which is not found in foreign institutions. At the same time, such study furnishes the indispensable preparation for later travel in the foreign land. The summer of 1951 brought students from thirty-nine different states and nine foreign countries, including Alabama, Arizona, Brazil, China, Colorado, Nebraska, Oklahoma, Oregon, Texas and Washington. Two hundred forty colleges and universities were represented. Seventy-seven per cent of the students held degrees, and twenty-four per cent held the Master's degree or the Doctorate. The majority of the students are candidates for advanced degrees. Eighty-three Master's degrees and two Doctorates in Modern Languages were awarded in August, 1951.

Location  The Middlebury Language Schools are located in a lovely Vermont countryside, at the foot of the Green Mountains, and about twenty miles from Lake Champlain. They occupy the campus of Middlebury College, founded in 1800 and still one of the most charming of New England colleges. The summer climate is delightful, with clear dry breezes and cool nights. Students treasure the memories of many scenes of Vermont mountains and forests; the valley of the winding Otter, Lake Dunmore in its hollow among the hills; the Adirondacks, pink in the morning sun, or the eastern range growing purple in the twilight.

Atmosphere  The schools endeavor to make everything in the life of a student during his stay contribute as effectively and as pleasantly as possible to the mastery of the language. Similarity of aim among students fosters good comradeship and an esprit de corps; while constant association with instructors at the dining tables, in songs and games, on hikes and picnics, no less than in the classroom, brings both inspirational and intellectual stimulus. Any language pursued under such conditions quickly becomes a subjective element in the life of a student. A high ratio of instructors to students is maintained, approximately one to eight.

Recreation  No college in the East offers more attractive opportunities for out-of-door recreation than are found at Middlebury in summer. The program of studies is so arranged as to leave late afternoons and week-ends free. Groups of students frequently spend an afternoon at a lakeside or hiking in the mountains. Unusual opportunities are afforded by the Battell Forest of 13,000 acres, belonging to Middlebury College. Week-end hiking parties on the celebrated Long Trail of the Green Mountains are popular. Swimming may be enjoyed at Lake Dunmore. Tennis and golf are available. Good automobile roads provide opportunity for trips into rural Vermont, to Lake Champlain, Lake Dunmore, Mount Mansfield, Ticonderoga, Ausable Chasm, the Adirondacks, Lake Placid, Lake George, and the White Mountains, any of which can be visited in a day's trip.

Admission  Students may enter without examinations and without being candidates for degrees. No student will be admitted, however, unless his qualifications are approved by the Dean, and the right is reserved to place all students in the classes best suited to their advancement.

The schools are essentially graduate schools; and the courses are generally of an advanced nature, requiring advanced preparation and real linguistic ability. Preference for admission will be given to teachers of the language, or graduate students with a definite professional objective. A few undergraduates with a serious purpose may be accepted if they are recommended by their professors as having adequate preparation.

No student will be admitted to the schools unless he is able and willing to use only the foreign language, during the entire session, even in the individual dormitory rooms. This rule, which has become a cherished and unique tradition of the schools, and which is a fundamental of the Middlebury method, goes into force from the moment the student enrolls. Students may, of course, use English in their dealings with the people of the village, but even in these cases, students must not speak English to each other. This rule holds good for all picnics and excursions. At the opening of the schools, each student will be required to sign a formal statement, pledging his word of honor to observe this rule. The Dean reserves the right to dismiss from the school students who willfully break it. Only the Director or the Dean may grant temporary release, upon occasions which may warrant it.

If, even after opening of the school, a student is found to be unable to comply with the rules of the school, and to follow a program of courses with profit, the administration reserves the right to request him to withdraw and to refund the fees paid.

Cooperation  All the Middlebury Language Schools maintain the closest cooperation with each other. An enrolled student may audit any courses in his own school. If, by reason of his proficiency, he receives the consent of the Deans of both schools, he may also audit courses in another school without charge, or he may enroll for credit in courses in another school on payment of a fee. All the schools share the use of the general Phonetics and Pronunciation Laboratory located in the Chemistry Building. In class groups or individually, students use the most up-to-date equipment for speech recording on acetate discs or tape or wire, electric play-backs with earphones, and separate practice booths. The laboratory is open at regular hours, in charge of a technician and assistant.

Credits  Students who desire credits must indicate that fact when they enroll, and, if candidates for a Middlebury degree, they must present evidence of their qualifications before their work will be counted. An official transcript will be issued upon written application to the College Registrar. No certificates will be given for attendance, nor to students who do not take the final examinations. Not more than six credits may be gained in one summer by an undergraduate, and not more than eight credits by a graduate student. (See pages 17, 28, 36, 46, 56.) A graduate student must receive a grade of "B" in a course in order to obtain credit for that course. The undergraduate passing grade is "C," subject to the regulations of the student's own college. One credit is equal to one semester hour. Each summer course meeting daily grants two semester hours of credit.

Examinations  In each school the last days of the session are devoted to final examinations. They are required of students who desire credits, transcripts, or recommendations, and it is very advisable that all should take them. The New York State written Examination for Approval of Oral Work is given at Middlebury early in August.

The Master's Degree  Candidates for the Master's degree must hold a baccalaureate degree from some approved college. To obtain the degree of Master of Arts at Middlebury College, thirty credits are necessary. Twenty of the thirty credits must be earned at Middlebury College. Thirty credits may be gained by proficient students in four summer sessions. Students with six or more credits accepted from other institutions may complete their work for the Master's degree in three summers. Students desiring to transfer graduate credits earned at other institutions should send the transcripts to the dean of their school before the opening of the session. The credits must have been earned since 1941. Study in a foreign country in approved summer courses may be counted toward the M.A. degree from Middlebury; each individual case must be approved by the dean. Six credits may be allowed for an equivalent of ninety hours of class exercises followed by examinations. Six credits is the maximum allowed for a single summer session of foreign study. Twenty credits must be earned in the major language; ten may be earned in related subjects approved by the Dean. Students desiring to count credits taken at Middlebury toward degrees to be secured elsewhere should obtain permission to do so from the institution to which they wish the credits transferred. Degrees are conferred in August or at the commencement following the completion of the work. A fee of $15 is required for the diploma. See the inside back cover for information about the Graduate Schools of French and Spanish abroad.

The Degree of Doctor of Modern Languages Middlebury College also offers, through the Language Schools, the advanced degree of Doctor of Modern Languages (D.M.L.). The main requirements are a thorough knowledge of a major language, its phonetics, philology, and literature; two minor languages; the equivalent of a year’s resident study beyond the Master’s degree; a year of study in a foreign country; and a thesis. A separate leaflet will be sent on request, giving full details concerning enrollment, study requirements, examinations, and the thesis.

Offices The offices of the President and Vice-President of the College, and the Summer Schools Office are on the third floor of the Old Chapel. The office of the Director of the French School is in East Forest Hall, and that of the Dean is in Le Château. The office of the Director of the Spanish School is in Hepburn Hall, and that of the Dean is in Old Chapel, fourth floor. The office of the Director of the Italian School is in the Sigma Phi Epsilon House. The office of the Director of the German School is in Pearsons Hall. The office of the Director of the Russian School is in Hillcrest Cottage.

Living Accommodations Students are accommodated in the college dormitories or fraternity houses on the Middlebury campus, and board is provided by the college. All rooms are completely furnished by the college; blankets, sheets and towels are supplied. Arrangements for personal laundry may be made after arrival. No accommodations for married couples are available in the halls of residence. Students should have their mail come addressed to their house of residence.

Students are not encouraged to live in town, because in so doing they would fail to receive the full benefit of the Middlebury method. Students who may have a valid reason for preferring to live in town must submit their case to the Dean of their School. Town addresses will be provided only after the student has received permission to live in town. It should be noted that the Summer Schools Office is not able to undertake the task of securing furnished rooms or apartments in the village.

Health Service  There is an Infirmary in the center of the campus (formerly Hillside Cottage), directed by a resident graduate nurse. She holds regular office hours, and is on call at all times in case of emergency. This service is free to all enrolled students. When the nature of a student's illness requires the services of a doctor, or hospitalization, or special medication, the student assumes all the financial obligations involved, as his fees to the college do not cover them.

Opening of the Session  All the schools will open the session of 1952 on Friday, June 27, and will continue until August 14. August 11 and 12 will be taken for final examinations. Classes are conducted five days in the week. The houses of residence will open to receive students on Friday, June 27, and lunch will be served at 12:30 p.m. No guests can be received earlier. Members of the faculty, and waiters or waitresses may, however, occupy their rooms on Thursday night, June 26. All houses will close after lunch, Thursday noon, August 14, and no guests can be accommodated after that time.

Railroad Routes  Middlebury can be reached from New York City or Boston by the Rutland Railroad. Students leaving New York or Boston in the morning will arrive in the afternoon. Night trains leaving New York or Boston arrive in the morning. Students on the route of the Delaware and Hudson can make connections with the Rutland Railroad at Rutland, Vermont. Students from the West reach Middlebury via the New York Central, changing at Albany, N.Y., and Troy, N.Y.

Enrollment of Students  It is important that immediately upon arrival students should consult the Director or Dean of their school in regard to the definite selection of courses. The Deans will be at their respective offices from 9 a.m. to 12 m., and from 2 p.m. to 5 p.m. on the enrollment days. After this consultation, the students should enroll, and pay all bills to the Treasurer.

Fees  The administration reserves the right to make any changes without notice in courses, staff, living arrangements, etc. The following information about fees should be carefully noted:

Rates  Rates in all the schools vary according to the houses of residence and single or double occupancy of rooms. The inclusive fee for registration, tuition, board and room will be from $300 to $335. The tuition fee for students rooming in town is $160.

Registration Fee  Each applicant who is accepted will pay a $35 registration fee. This fee will be credited to the student's total bill and an applicant is considered officially registered only when he has paid this fee. It is required of every student, including veterans, and students who plan to live in the village. The fee will be refunded if notice of cancellation is received by the Secretary of the Summer Schools before May 15; after May 15 no refund will be made. Money should not be sent until the secretary requests payment. Rooms are assigned only to officially registered students; therefore, a room deposit is not required. All payments should be made in checks or money-orders, not cash; and the name of the student for whose account payment is made should be clearly indicated.

Auditors All courses in a school are open to auditing at any time by members of that school, or to members of another of the Language Schools on permission of the respective Deans. Visitors in Middlebury, not members of a school, may be permitted to enroll as auditors, on payment of the fee of $15 a week or $60 for four or more weeks, arrangements to be made in the Language Schools Office. All such auditors are not entitled to take part in class discussions, nor to receive the attention of the professor. Auditors are entitled to attend social events and evening entertainments. To enroll as a regular member of a course, a student must pay the full tuition charge.

Late Enrollment All students are required to enroll and pay all fees not later than the first day of instruction. Enrollment after that day will be accepted only by special permission secured in advance from the Dean, and will be subject to a fine of $3.00 for the first day and $1.00 additional for each day late during the first week of classes, after which no enrollments will be accepted. Rooms reserved for students will not be held after the second day of instruction unless permission has been secured in advance from the Dean.

Other Middlebury Schools A student enrolled in one of the Language Schools may, with the consent of the Deans of both schools, audit courses in another of the schools without charge, or enroll for credit in courses in another of the schools on payment of a fee of $15.00 per course, payable at the end of the first week of instruction.

Transcript Fees One official transcript of a summer's work will be issued without charge on written request to the College Registrar. A fee of $1.00 is charged for each additional transcript. No transcripts will be issued or grades given to students financially indebted to the college, until satisfactory arrangements have been made at the Treasurer's Office. No fee is charged for transcripts submitted to any branch of the armed services.

Refunds Owning to fixed obligations for service, instruction, and maintenance, persons arriving late or leaving school before the close of the session must not expect reimbursement of any charges for the unconsumed time. No allowances will be made for weekend absences.

Veterans Veterans may attend the Language Schools under the G. I. Bill of Rights. The cost of tuition will be paid directly by the Government; room and board charges will be paid by the veteran. If a veteran wishes to enroll, he should apply immediately for a Certificate of Eligibility from his local Veterans Administration Agency. He should make sure that the certificate states clearly that it is issued for use at Middlebury College in the specific school for which he has been accepted. This certificate should be secured as early as possible and sent to the Secretary of the Summer Schools. If this certificate is not at hand and in proper form on or before enrollment day, the veteran must come prepared to pay his own tuition bill.

Guests In view of the fact that the college facilities are very crowded, it will not be possible to accommodate guests of students during the session or at Commencement.

Payments A student's entire bill is payable at the opening of the session. Students are urgently advised to avoid unnecessary delays and inconvenience by bringing all money for fees, board, and lodging, etc. in the form of money orders, express checks, or cashier's checks on an accredited bank. Checks should be made payable to Middlebury College.

Self-Help For scholarships and opportunities for service, see pages 20, 30, 37, 47, 58.
The French School, which enters the thirty-seventh year of its existence with the 1952 session, while it will again present a varied and well-rounded program of courses in language, phonetics, methods, oral practice and literature, will stress this year the study of the contemporary political scene. The key position of France in Western Europe, her role in the North Atlantic Treaty Organization, her leadership in the Schuman Plan, her sponsorship of a European Army in a Federated Europe, make such a study especially pertinent at this time.

The School is happy therefore to announce the appointment as its Visiting Professor of M. François Goguel, a professor at the Institut d'Études Politiques of the University of Paris, and a foremost authority on French contemporary politics.

Other features in the program for this year include two new courses on important aspects of French civilization, by Professor André Bourde, of Manchester, England; the return of Professors Bruel, Denkinger and Mohrt, and of most of last year's faculty.

COURSES OF STUDY

A. Language

Directeur d’études, M. GUILLOTON

11. ADVANCED FRENCH STYLISTICS. Designed to give advanced students a finer feeling for French style, a sense for shades of expression, a mastery of certain difficulties not discussed in more elementary courses. Theoretical lessons in stylistics; advanced exercises in translation. Strictly limited to twenty students. 8:00 M. GUILLOTON.

12. ADVANCED COMPOSITION. For students who, having a good knowledge of French, have not yet mastered certain peculiarities of grammar and phrasing. Texts of increasing difficulty translated into French; class discussions. Sections limited to twenty students. 8:00, 9:00, 10:00 MM. DEFROMONT, GONNAUD, GIUET.

13. COMPOSITION AND ADVANCED GRAMMAR. Designed to train students in the use of correct French. Grammar is reviewed in the light of actual usage and abundant practice is provided in writing. 8:00, 11:00, 12:00 MM. BROMHERT, GIUET, MLLE HUNTZBUCHLER.

14. INTERMEDIATE COMPOSITION AND REVIEW GRAMMAR. A thorough and systematic review of syntax and the fundamental principles of grammar, for less advanced students. (Undergraduate credit only.) 9:00, 10:00, 11:00 MM. BROMHERT, GONNAUD, MLLE HUNTZBUCHLER.
15. (FREE COMPOSITION.) Omitted in 1952.

Note: A written test will be given early in all the Language Courses. According to the results of this test, students will be assigned to the proper section of the course in which they registered, or to another course in this group.

B. Phonetics and Diction

Directeur d'études pour la phonétique, M. Delattre
Directeur d'études pour la diction, Mme Moussu

21. (LABORATORY COURSE IN EXPERIMENTAL PHONETICS.) Omitted in 1952.

22. ADVANCED PHONETICS. For students with a good knowledge of phonetics and a sufficiently correct pronunciation. Aims to teach the pronunciation accepted among cultivated French people, and to illustrate the practical application of the theory of phonetics to its teaching. 8:00, 9:00 M. Delattre, Mme Moussu.

23. INTERMEDIATE PHONETICS. A continued study of practical phonetics, with its application to personal pronunciation. Correct formation of French sounds; sounds in isolation and combination, oral exercises and ear training. 8:00, 9:00, 10:00, 11:00 Mm. Delattre, Marty, Mmes Moussu, Bertrand.

24. ELEMENTARY PHONETICS. A scientific approach to French pronunciation. Methodical comparison of English and French sounds. For students who never studied phonetics, or never attacked the problem of their pronunciation in a scientific manner. (Undergraduate credit only.) 8:00, 9:00, 10:00, 11:00, 12:00 Mm. Delattre, Marty, Mme Bertrand, Mlle de Commaille.

25. DICTION, INTONATION, ELOCUTION. Intended to complete the work done in phonetics and should not be taken without a good knowledge of phonetics. Aims to impart, not an artificial pronunciation, but the expressive and musical shading for French diction, used in ordinary conversation as well as in public reading or speaking. 9:00, 10:00, 11:00 Mme Moussu, Mlle Rey.

Notes: 1. In all Phonetics and Diction classes, placement tests will be given at the beginning, and each section will be limited to fifteen students.

2. In all Phonetics and Diction classes, intensive aural-oral training is provided, and all students are required to make regular and constant use of the facilities of the Phonetics Center (see page 19) (Disk-cutting fee, One dollar).

C. Methods and Professional Training

33. FRENCH CLUB ACTIVITIES. The organization of a successful Cercle Français, and its problems: creating and maintaining a French atmosphere, stimulation of student interest, research and utilization of suitable material: songs, games, dramatizations, photographs, films, etc. Typical programs worked out in full. Texts: Ruth Morize, Le Cercle Français; Jameson, Le Cercle Français. 10:00 Miss Crandall.

Note: The students in this course, as well as all the students of the School, will have access to the facilities of the Realia Museum, and are urged to consult Miss Crandall, in charge of the Museum, about special problems and needs (see page 18).
D. Literature and Civilization

Directeur d'études, M. GUILLOTON

41. FRANCE TO-DAY. The present situation of France and her role in Western Europe are of primary concern to Americans who are often puzzled by the instability of French politics and watch with anxiety their ally's struggle with her economic and social problems. The course will aim to acquaint the student with the recent and current history of France and to explain the difficulties facing her in the post-war period. Problems of domestic policy—the Gaullist and Communist parties, the Third and Fourth Forces, the 1951 elections—as well as foreign policy—the North Atlantic Treaty Organization, the Schuman plan, European Federation, the Indo-China war, etc.—will be discussed.

11:00 M. GOGUEL.

43. THE EVOLUTION OF FRENCH SOCIETY SINCE THE REVOLUTION OF 1789. An analysis of the changes as well as of the permanent trends which will help to understand the present social complexion of France.

9:00 M. BOURDE.

44. FRENCH CIVILIZATION IN A CHANGING WORLD.)

Omitted in 1952.

46. CONTEMPORARY FRENCH THEATRE. The principal aspects of dramatic activity in France from 1900 to the present. Théâtres du boulevard, Théâtres subventionnés, Scènes d’avant-garde. Plays representative of present tendencies will be studied through outside readings, class discussions, and written reports.

10:00 M. COINDREAU.

48. INTRODUCTION TO MODERN FRENCH POETRY. An introduction to the understanding and appraisal of the modern tendencies in French poetry, combining the historical approach and the analysis of the most representative texts, from Baudelaire to the present.

9:00 M. BOURCIER.

49. THE "PERSONAL JOURNALS" IN MODERN LITERATURE. A study of the "journal intime," from Stendhal to Gide, with special emphasis on the psychological and historical value of such "confessions." Benjamin Constant, Delacroix, Vigny, Baudelaire, Jules Renard, Barrès will be among the authors examined.

10:00 M. MOHRT.

51. STUDIES IN THE CONTEMPORARY NOVEL. Some of the present tendencies in the French novel, with particular emphasis on the following authors: Mauriac, Bernanos, Jouhandeau, Malraux, Montherlant, Drieu la Rochelle, Giono, Sartre, Camus. Lectures, analyses and discussions.

12:00 M. MOHRT.

53. MUSIC AND LITERATURE IN FRANCE FROM THE RENAISSANCE TO THE PRESENT. A study of the great periods of French music in their relation to the literary movements of the times. Emphasis will be placed on the artistic significance of the musical works with reference to the aesthetic context and ideals of the contemporary literature rather than on a technical analysis of the works themselves.

10:00 M. BOURDE.

57. CORNEILLE AND RACINE. The rise of classical drama, from the Renaissance types of plays. Theatrical life; poetical theory and practice. The evolution of tragedy through the seventeenth century, and the works of the two main tragic poets. Text: Any annotated edition may be used; Classiques Larousse are suggested.

12:00 M. DENKINGER.

58. THE RENAISSANCE AND ITS GREAT WRITERS. An analysis of the Renaissance as it expressed itself in the works of the leading authors of France in the sixteenth century. A careful study of the writings and ideas of Rabelais, Ronsard, du Bellay, d'Aubigné, Montaigne and Calvin. Discussion of literary tendencies, outside reading, written and oral reports. 9:00 M. Coindreau.

63. EXPLICATIONS DE TEXTES. Reading and interpretation of French texts, according to a method extensively used in French schools. Demonstrations and criticisms by the instructor, written preparation and oral practice by the students. Passages from representative authors are chosen for detailed analysis. 8:00 Mlle Bruel.

Note: All students, especially doctorate candidates, who are working on a problem of literary research or any other academic project, should not fail to profit by the individual guidance offered by the school staff. Personal interviews and consultations will be arranged with members of the staff who specialize in the same field.

E. Oral Practice

Directeur d'études, M. Thomas

74. ADVANCED ORAL PRACTICE AND SELF-EXPRESSION. Carefully selected groups, limited to ten students; intensive training in oral practice and self-expression. A detailed program for each hour; prepared discussion on assigned subjects, with definite vocabulary preparation. (Required for the Master's degree.)

9:00, 10:00, 12:00 Mme Guilloton, Mlle Bruel.

75. CONVERSATION AND VOCABULARY. A systematic course, based on a daily two-hour plan, for students who understand French readily but need to gain confidence and efficiency in speaking. The students will: 1. attend a required general meeting, for a thorough study of the topics and materials to be used the next day in the practice sections; 2. in these sections, carry on actual conversation on the topics and with the material presented on the preceding day. (Undergraduate credit only.)

General meeting at 8:00 M. Thomas.
Sections: 9:00, 10:00, 11:00, 12:00 Mme Hoog, Mllles De Commaille, Rey, Roppe.

76. ELEMENTS OF ORAL PRACTICE. A systematic course, based on the aural-oral method, for students unaccustomed to hearing or speaking French. The students will: 1. listen to specially-made records and take from dictation the topics and materials to be used in their oral practice, the next day; 2. converse, in small sections, on the topics and with the material gathered by them on the preceding day. (Undergraduate credit only.)

General meeting at 2:00 M. Thomas, Mme Thomas.
Sections, 9:00, 10:00, 11:00 M. Thomas, Mlle Stahl.

Note: Enrollment in all Oral Practice courses is on a tentative, probationary basis. At the end of the first week, or before, students will be assigned to the proper course, according to their ability.

CURRICULUM REGULATIONS

Credits Two credits are allowed for each course, unless otherwise indicated. All courses carry graduate credit, except 14 (Intermediate Composition), 24 (Elementary Phonetics), 75 (Conversation and Vocabulary), and 76 (Elements of Oral Practice). All courses carry undergraduate credit. (See page 5) Courses 11 (Stylistics) and 12 (Advanced Composition) may with the consent of the Dean be taken a second summer for credit, since the material of the courses is varied each year.

Requirements for Degrees Candidates for the Master's degree must pass, before completion of their work, one advanced course at least in each of the following fields: Language (Course 12, or 11), Phonetics (23 or 22), Methods (31), Civilization (44, or any other civilization course in Group D), and Oral Practice (74), and earn not less than 6 credits in advanced courses in Literature. Students who transfer credits for equivalent courses taken elsewhere may request release from the corresponding requirements. A special leaflet, sent on request, gives the rules governing the degree of Master of Arts in French. (For the D.M.L., see page 5.)

LIFE IN THE SCHOOL

Use of French No student will be admitted unless he is able and willing to use only French at all times, during the seven weeks of the session. Each student, when enrolled, will sign a formal statement, pledging his word of honor to observe this rule. The School reserves the right to refuse admission, at the opening of the session, to any student who fails to satisfy this basic requirement, and to dismiss, at any time, students who wilfully break the rule. (See page 4.)

Admission All persons wishing to be considered for admission as regularly-enrolled students must file an application blank. A 'General Information' leaflet, sent on request, will give all the details of procedure for application and registration.

Consultations The entire staff of the School is at the disposal of all students for counselling and advice, through regular consultation hours announced early in the session or by special appointment.

French Libraries The collections of French books, in the College Library and the Château, constantly enriched, especially by generous gifts from the French Government, contain over 10,000 volumes dealing with all phases of French study—language, literature, history, civilization, art, and teaching methods.

Bookstores General supplies, dictionaries and textbooks published in this country can be purchased at the College Bookstore, in the Student Union. La Librairie française, in Carr Hall, attempts to reproduce a bookshop in France, handling French classics and reference works, but specializing in contemporary novels, poetry, drama, and non-fiction.

Realia Museum A unique collection of illustrative material—provincial costumes, models of regional houses and furniture, dolls, Guignol accessories, children's books, magazines, games, posters, postcards and photographs, also extensive files of other suggestions, and appropriate addresses—is on display, and may be consulted during regular daily hours, at Carr Hall.

Phonetics Center The scientific equipment for the study of pronunciation and diction is assembled in a coordinated unit known as Le Centre de Phonétique. Consisting of a disk-cutting machine, magnetic recorders, individual booths with electric phonographs equipped with ear-phones, and a large collection of records, it is open during regular daily hours, with trained assistants in charge. Consultations are arranged with members of the phonetics staff for individual coaching and correction of recordings.

Other Equipment In addition to the Realia Museum and Phonetics Center, the School is well supplied with all types of diversified equipment—wall and relief maps, charts, film strips and slides on French geography, history and art. Silent and sound movies of an instructional nature are frequently shown and discussed. Extensive use is made of mimeographed or lithographed material, each class being supplied with outlines, bibliographies, and exercises, free or at nominal cost.

Weekly Program The normal weekly program of the School is scheduled as follows:

- Tuesday evenings, at 8:00, lectures, by the Director, the Visiting Professor, or others.
- Friday evenings, at 8:00, dramatic presentations, by the Faculty, preceded by community singing. For the singing, Chantons un peu, by Ruth Conniston (Odyssey Press), will be used.
- Sunday mornings, at 10:45, in the Mead Memorial Chapel, Chapel services in French. Non-compulsory, and strictly non-denominational, they consist of readings from French religious and spiritual writings, and auditions of religious music, instrumental and vocal. The large vested choir will continue to be a feature of these services. All persons interested are invited to attend.

In cooperation with the other Language Schools, the French School will also present foreign moving pictures, on Wednesday afternoons and evenings, and chamber music or vocal concerts by guest artists, on Sunday evenings.

Picnics, an old-fashioned boat ride on Lake Champlain, a costume ball, and a picturesque buffet lawn-supper complete the usual organized activities of the School.

Dormitories The main dormitories of the French School are Le Château, Forest Hall, and the two new buildings known as Battell North and South.

The identifying feature of the French School, and a cherished landmark of the campus, le Château was inspired by the Pavillon Henri IV of the palace of Fontainebleau. It contains two salons attractively furnished in period furniture, two classrooms, a library, and the offices of the Dean.

Forest, one of the finest dormitories on the campus, is built of native stone in colonial style. All rooms are single. In addition to beautiful reception and dining rooms, it contains the apartment and offices of the Director.

Battell North and South, on the approach to the Château, are built in a modified Georgian style, with pleasantly appointed rooms of modern design.

Also part of the French School is Weybridge House, a three-story white frame building on a tree-shaded street close to the campus.

All dormitories are under the supervision of the Dean through appointed hosts and hostesses, responsible to him for order in each building and for the development of a spirit of informal friendliness.

Dining Halls In the four dining halls that serve the School, the students gather at tables for seven or nine, each table presided over by a member of the staff. Students and teachers rotate according to a prearranged schedule, enabling all to get better acquainted.

OTHER INFORMATION

Scholarships For the summer of 1952, ten scholarships of one hundred dollars each and sixteen scholarships of seventy-five dollars each are available, to be awarded on the basis of need, merit, and scholastic promise. Grateful acknowledgement is made of the following special scholarships, made possible through the generosity of friends of the School:

Two James Richardson Scholarships, established by Mrs. James Richardson of Providence, R. I.;
The Stella Christie Scholarship, established by Mrs. C. C. Conover of Kansas City;
The Berthe des Combes Favard Scholarship, established by the Cercle Français of Chicago;
Two Professor André Morize Scholarships, established by the Boston-Cambridge Group of the Alliance Française;
Several scholarships, by anonymous donors;
An unspecified number of scholarships, by the French Government.

In addition, a full tuition scholarship is being made available, for the first time, through the generosity of the recently formed "Amicale de Middlebury." Candidates for this award will be considered only upon recommendation by members of the "Amicale."

Self-Help  The only other way in which a student may assist in defraying his expenses is by waiting on table in the French dining halls, or by helping with kitchen work. Remuneration may vary, depending on the type of work done, but will, in any case, cover the expense of board.

Scholarship and Self-Help Applications  Application blanks for either form of financial aid may be obtained from the Dean’s Office. They must be filed before April 15th in order to be considered for the first listing of awards and appointments. Announcement of awards and appointments is made about May 1st.

Arrival  Beginning Friday morning, June 27, students will be met at the train by a French School representative, who will direct them to taxis and assist with arrangements for luggage. As soon as possible, students should report to the Château to enroll for their courses, and to receive other information. (See also pages 6 and 7). Enrollment will take place on Friday and Saturday, June 27 and 28. The first official assembly of the French School will be held on Sunday evening, June 29, at 8:00 at the Gymnasium. All students are required to attend. Classes begin at 8:00 Monday morning, June 30.

Winter Session  During the regular academic year, the French Department of the College, with a faculty almost entirely native French, offers a program of regular and special graduate courses, conducted in French, and leading to the Master's degree. Students may combine their work with study in the Summer School.

Graduate School in France  Middlebury College also operates a Graduate School of French in France. A selected group of graduate students spends the academic year enrolled at the University of Paris, working under the supervision of a resident representative of Middlebury College. The Middlebury Master of Arts degree is awarded to those who successfully complete an approved program of studies. For further information, see the inside back cover of this bulletin.

Placement Service Both the French School and the French Department maintain an active file of offers of teaching positions and make their service available to students without charge. Special blanks for teachers seeking positions will be sent on request.

Amicale de Middlebury There now exists an association of Alumni, Professors, Students, and Friends, of the French School, destined to maintain the spirit of fellowship and comradeship among all those who have been associated with the School, or who approve of its aims; and to promote various activities designed to further those aims. Particulars will be sent on request.

Correspondence Correspondence concerning courses, credits, degrees, admission to the school, scholarships, self-help and the 'Amicale' should be addressed to the Dean of the French School, Le Château, Middlebury, Vt.

Correspondence concerning rooms, fees and other general information should be addressed to the Secretary of the Language Schools, Middlebury College, Middlebury, Vt.
Deutsche Sommerschule

(From June 27 to August 14)

The Middlebury German School is the forerunner of all the Middlebury Language Schools. It was founded in 1915 on the initiative of Miss Marian P. Whitney, former head of the German Department of Vassar College, and of Miss Lilian L. Stroebe of Vassar who was its director until 1918. When the school reopened in 1931, Professor Ernst Feise of the Johns Hopkins University was appointed Director and the School was located in the village of Bristol. Upon the retirement of Dr. Feise in 1948, Dr. Neuse, Dean of the School since 1932, was appointed Director. The German School occupies as its center Pearsons Hall, in which it was begun thirty-seven years ago.

LIFE IN THE SCHOOL

The Aims

The school is primarily designed for advanced students who, possessing a fair speaking and reading knowledge of German, wish to perfect their ability to use it, and desire to deepen and broaden their acquaintance with German literature as well as with its cultural background and the soil on which it has grown.

Admission

For all questions concerning admission see page 4. Since the success of the school and the benefit derived from attending it depend on the creation of an atmosphere of intimate group consciousness and the carrying out of a carefully planned program of six weeks, participation in all official activities of the school, such as lectures, after-dinner gatherings, and singing is obligatory. Students not wishing to participate in the social life of the school can be accepted only in very rare cases with the consent of the Director and after an examination in which they have proved their excellence in handling the language. They are, however, expected to take part in the daily singing and to attend extracurricular lectures and programs. (For Auditors see page 8).

German School Accommodations In the summer of 1951, the German School was held on the Middlebury College Campus for the first time since its re-opening in 1931. During the 1952 Summer Session the women's dormitory and the School's offices will be in Pearsons Hall, the same building in which thirty-seven years ago the first German School, the forerunner of all of Middlebury's Language Schools was opened. The men's dormitory will be Painter Hall, the oldest building on the campus, but completely modernized. The common dining hall will be Willard House, formerly Battell. The Social Hall will be in Pearsons. Students and faculty will rotate at the tables at mealtime according to a fixed schedule so as to enable all to get acquainted. After the noon meal, German songs are sung in the social room at Pearsons.

Lectures and Plays Lectures or plays will be given after dinner on a regular schedule. "Literarische Sonntagsandachten," not conflicting with local church services, will be held every Sunday morning.

Recreation and Sports On Saturdays, the school organizes hikes into the near-by Green Mountains or to lakes in the Champlain Valley. Faculty members regularly participate in these outings, and students will enjoy this period of week-end relaxation during which the foreign language is used in an atmosphere different from that of the classroom. On Tuesday and Friday evenings all students are expected to join in the folk dances which are taught on the lawn beside Pearsons.

OTHER INFORMATION

Arrival and Opening The Session opens for enrollment on Friday morning, June 27. Students should report on arrival to the Director in Pearsons Hall. He will advise them regarding courses, and inform them on enrollment procedure. The first meal will be served on Friday at 12:30. The first official assembly of the German School will be held at 8:15 on Sunday evening in Pearsons Hall. Classes begin on Monday, June 30, at 8:00 a.m. (See page 7.)
Bookstore  At the Bücherstube in Pearsons Hall books used in the courses may be purchased; also other books will be offered for sale at moderate prices.

Opportunities for Service  All waiters and waitresses in the German School dining hall must be able to speak German. In order to secure such a staff, opportunity is offered to a limited number of students to earn their board in return for their service. Those interested should file application blanks with the Director of the School before April 1.

Scholarships  The following scholarships are available: the Martin Sommerfeld Memorial Scholarship, established by students and faculty in memory of Professor Sommerfeld who taught in the German School in 1939; and three other scholarships. All four are in the amount of $100. and are awarded on the basis of need, merit, and scholastic promise. Application blanks may be obtained from the Director of the German School and must be filed before April 1. The awards will be announced by May 1.

Address  Correspondence concerning courses, credits, degrees, and admission to the School, should be addressed to Prof. Werner Neuse, Middlebury College, Middlebury, Vermont. Correspondence concerning rooms, fees, and other general information should be addressed to Secretary of the Language Schools, Middlebury College, Middlebury, Vermont.
The Italian School of Middlebury College was founded in 1932 by Dr. Gabriella Bosano, of Wellesley College, and continued by Dr. Camillo P. Merlino, of Boston University. Since Dr. Merlino's resignation in 1947 Dr. Salvatore J. Castiglione, of the Georgetown University School of Foreign Service, has been Director.

The Director is happy to announce the return of the following faculty members of recent sessions: Dr. Bianca Calabresi, Dr. Mauro Calamandrei, Dr. Pierina Castiglione, and Professor Valentine Giamatti. In addition to the regularly offered language courses, planned to give the students fluency, accuracy, and naturalness of expression, the curriculum for the 1952 session includes the course on DANTE AND HIS TIMES (INFERNO), the GENERAL VIEW OF ITALIAN CULTURE course, and two new courses: one on the TRECENTO and the other on GIACOMO LEOPARDI.

THE COURSES OF STUDY

A. Language

1. INTERMEDIATE GRAMMAR AND COMPOSITION. A thorough review of Italian grammar; vocabulary building; free composition; translation. This course is intended for students who have a good elementary knowledge of the language; it aims to impart a reasonable degree of proficiency in the use of the fundamental principles of grammar.

9:00 Signor Giamatti.

2. ADVANCED COMPOSITION. An advanced course for students possessing a good knowledge of Italian. It will consist of translations from English into Italian of texts of increasing difficulty, and practice in original composition. Frequent reference will be made to grammar and syntax in the systematic study of idioms.

9:00 Signor Castiglione.

3. ORAL PRACTICE AND SELF-EXPRESSION. Daily training in current Italian designed to help the student gain assurance in self-expression in the language. Word study, oral reports on concrete topics, and a systematic building up of the conversational vocabulary will be based on assigned topics.

8:00 Signora Castiglione.

4. ADVANCED ORAL PRACTICE AND SELF-EXPRESSION. Intensive training in oral practice, public speaking and self-expression. A detailed program arranged for each hour; prepared discussion on assigned subjects, with definite vocabulary preparation; short debates, oral reports, oral criticisms of books or articles.

8:00 Signor Calamandrei.

5. PHONETICS. A practical study of Italian phonetics, based on the reading aloud of carefully chosen prose and poetry selections; emphasis not only on the correct pronunciation of Italian sounds, but also on the proper intonation of spoken Italian; classroom work will be integrated by the use of phonograph records.

10:00 Signora Castiglione.

6. ORAL STYLISTICS. This course is designed to meet, through carefully planned exercises, the needs of those who have already acquired general proficiency in the spoken language. It aims to develop natural fluency through emphasizing the difference between what is merely correct and what is Italian.

12:00 Signora Calabresi.

B. Literature and Civilization

11. GENERAL VIEW OF ITALIAN CULTURE. I. (To be offered in 1953.)

LIFE IN THE SCHOOL

Use of Italian The Middlebury idea of language learning requires for its effective execution a genuinely friendly atmosphere. This friendliness and spirit of happy cooperation is one of the most attractive features of the school. With it, the rule of no English soon loses its rigor, and the exclusive use of Italian becomes a pleasant challenge and discovery.
Italian Dormitories  For the summer of 1952, a group of fine fraternity houses on the Middlebury College campus, providing excellent dormitory accommodations, will serve as headquarters for the Italian School. Equipped with attractive social rooms and surrounded by spacious lawns shaded by trees, these houses lend themselves to the development of an atmosphere of friendly informality so conducive to “oral practice”—one of the main features of the Middlebury experience. Dr. and Mrs. Castiglione will reside in Sigma Phi Epsilon, thus actively promoting the spirit of good fellowship in an Italian atmosphere.

The Italian Dining Room  The attractive dining hall in Delta Upsilon will be available to the Italian School. The hum of conversation in the dining room is natural and spontaneous. Prompted and guided by understanding instructors who preside at each table, the students quickly overcome their linguistic shyness. In order to get better acquainted with one another and with all the instructors, students are required to rotate according to a fixed schedule.

Activities  The morning hours will be given over to class work, leaving the afternoon free for recreation and study. Students and teachers will meet frequently in the evening for readings, lectures, choral assemblies, and social gatherings. All students are expected to take part in the weekly choral assembly and to attend extracurricular lectures and programs. The school picnics, informal instruction in folk dances, tennis, the popular game of “bocce,” as well as hiking, afford further pleasant relaxation. Members of the Italian School are cordially invited to attend the special programs given by the other Language Schools.

Credits  Unless otherwise indicated, two credits or semester hours will be allowed for each course, and all courses count toward the Master’s degree. (See also page 5.)

Note: Course 2 (Advanced Composition) and Course 6 (Oral Stylistics) may be taken twice for credit, as the material of the course varies each year. Course 14 (Dante) may be taken three times for credit, once on the Inferno, once on the Purgatorio, and one on the Paradiso. No other courses in the school may be repeated for credit.

General Information

The Session opens for enrollment on Friday, June 27, and classes begin Monday, June 30, at 8:00 a.m. (See also pages 6 and 7.)

Admission  Students may enter without examination, and without being candidates for degrees. No student, however, will be admitted unless his qualifications are approved by the Director, and the right is reserved to place students in classes best suited to them.
Enrollment  As soon as possible after arriving on June 27, every student should enroll for courses with the Director, and pay all fees. Late enrollment is subject to fine and will not be permitted after the first week.

Books  A well-balanced and constantly expanding collection of Italian books, housed in the College Library, amply provides for the needs of the students. In addition, textbooks and other aids for the teaching of Italian will be available for examination. In Sigma Phi Epsilon there is also an Italian bookshop at which students will be able to purchase the texts required for class work, as well as dictionaries and a variety of books of classic and modern Italian literature.

Scholarships  For the summer of 1952, a number of scholarships are available. These will be awarded on the basis of need, merit, and scholastic promise. Application should be made to the Director before April 15; awards will be announced about May 1. Grateful acknowledgement is made of the following special scholarships, made possible through the generosity of friends of the School:

      The Thomas J. Quirk Circolo Italiano Scholarship offered for the thirteenth consecutive year by the Circolo Italiano of the Hartford (Conn.) Public High School.
      The Italian Teachers Club of Hartford, Conn., Scholarship offered for the thirteenth consecutive year.
      The Rochester Scholarship offered for the ninth consecutive year by "IL SOLCO," Italian Cultural Society of Rochester, N. Y.
      The Mastrangelo Memorial Scholarship offered by friends of the late Rocco Mastrangelo.

Self-Help  Another important way in which students may assist in defraying their expenses is by waiting on table in the Italian dining room. All waiters or waitresses are students at the school who are able to use Italian exclusively in the dining room. The remuneration for this service is their board. Those interested should make application to Dr. Castiglione before April 15; awards will be announced about May 1.

Correspondence  Correspondence concerning admission, credits, and choice of courses should be addressed to the Director of the Italian School, Dr. Salvatore J. Castiglione, Institute of Languages and Linguistics, Georgetown University, 1719 Massachusetts Avenue, N.W., Washington, D.C. Correspondence concerning fees, rooms, and other general information should be addressed to the Secretary of the Language Schools, Middlebury College, Middlebury, Vermont.
Русская Школа
(From June 27 to August 14)

There has never been a greater need in our country than there is today for closer knowledge of Russia, past and present, and for more intimate understanding of its people. Mindful of this fact, the Director has endeavored to organize a program of courses most suited to answer present needs, and to engage the best authorities and the most successful native teachers for the various courses. In its eighth session, the School is equipped, as never before, to provide a rich background for students of Russia's humanistic culture, and for those preparing for teaching, scientific, diplomatic, and other careers.

The Director is happy to announce the following new appointments: of Dr. Marianna Poltoratzky of the Army Language School, Monterey, as Visiting Professor; and of Mrs. Nadezhda Koroton of Dartmouth College.

The curriculum will include the following lecture and seminar courses:

- Fyodor Dostoevsky: His Works and Influence, by the Director;
- History of the Russian Language and Survey of Russian Literature to 1800, by Dr. Poltoratzky;
- History of Russian Art, by Dr. Vorobiov;
- Literary Masters of the Nineteenth Century and Contemporary Russia, by Prof. Ivask.

COURSES OF STUDY

Survey courses are intended as a basis for more specialized courses to be offered in succeeding seasons. The research course (50) will afford opportunity for concentrated study on a subject of major interest. With the exception of certain basic courses, which are offered every summer, advanced work is on a rotation basis, giving the student an opportunity to cover thoroughly, in a period of three or four years, the fundamental phases of Russian thought and letters.

I. Language

1. GRAMMAR REVIEW AND ORAL DRILL. Thorough and systematic review of Russian grammar and basic vocabulary. Drill on pronunciation, conversation, and reading. Intended for students whose background in Russian is insufficient to enable them to carry a full load at the graduate level. (Undergraduate credit only.)

MRS. FEODOROVA-PRESSMAN.

11. INTERMEDIATE GRAMMAR AND COMPOSITION. Compositions of gradually increasing difficulty. Study of synonyms and idioms; dictation. Practical application of grammatical principles.

MRS. VACQUIER.

12. INTERMEDIATE CONVERSATION AND ORAL PRACTICE. Daily training in current Russian, designed to provide the student with assurance in self-expression and a basic active vocabulary. Oral reports on assigned topics and class discussions.

MR. MAI TZOFF, MRS. FEODOROVA-PRESSMAN, MRS. KOROTON.

14. PRACTICAL PHONETICS. A course intended for students at the intermediate level who need systematic training in Russian pronunciation. Methodical comparison of English and Russian sounds. The sound mirror and records will be used. Enrollment will be restricted to those most in need of remedial work.

MR. PRESSMAN.

21. ADVANCED COMPOSITION AND GRAMMAR. This course is designed for students with a good grammatical foundation, but lacking certainty in direct application of their knowledge. Particular attention will be given to idiomatic usage, shades of meaning and syntactical accuracy. The method will consist of grammatical exercises, original compositions, and class discussions.

MR. VOROBIOV, MRS. KOROTON.

MR. MALTZOFF, MR. PRESSMAN.

25. HISTORY OF THE RUSSIAN LANGUAGE. A survey of the development of Russian literary language; its phonology, morphology and semantics. Effects of popular speech and literacy. Readings illustrating important phases in the development of the language, with special attention to modern Russian and to linguistic changes since the Revolution.

MRS. POLTORATZKY.

II. Literature

30. LITERARY MASTERS OF THE NINETEENTH CENTURY. An analysis of the social, political, and artistic trends of the nineteenth century, as reflected in the fiction of Pushkin, Lermontov, Gogol, Turgenev, Tolstoy, Dostoevsky, Saltykov-Shchedrin, and Chekhov.

MR. IVASK.

32. SURVEY OF RUSSIAN LITERATURE TO 1800. An introduction to the literature of Russia from earliest times to Pushkin, with special emphasis on such early masterpieces as Slovo o Polku Igorove and the Byliny. Most of the time, however, will be devoted to 18th century authors. Illustrative examples only in old Russian will be used.
Lectures, readings, and reports will require only the knowledge of modern Russian. Ample opportunity will be provided for class discussions.

Mrs. Poltoratsky.

38. FYODOR DOSTOEVSKY: HIS WORKS AND INFLUENCE.  Survey of literary and ideological currents of the period (1840–1880). Dostoevsky’s works as related to other literary classics of the time. Evolution of his outlook and novelistic art. Influence at home and abroad. Lectures, oral and written reports, class discussions.

Mr. Fayer.

III. Civilization

41. CONTEMPORARY RUSSIA.  Russia since the Revolution; a survey of the significant ideological, economic, political, social, and scientific developments of the Soviet Union.

Mr. Ivask.

42. HISTORY OF RUSSIAN ART.  Survey of the development of Russian architecture, sculpture, and painting from the Kiev Period to the present day. The major portion of the course will deal with the period since 1700. An attempt will be made to correlate artistic trends with literary and other cultural events. Lectures, discussions and student reports.

Mr. Vorobiev.

50. RESEARCH.  All students, especially degree candidates, who are working on a problem of research in Russian language, literature and civilization, are invited to profit by the individual guidance offered by the School staff. Personal consultations will be arranged through the Director. Such assistance is gladly offered, and students are urged to take advantage of it.

Mr. Fayer, with the collaboration of members of the staff.

Rotation Courses

The following courses are given periodically every second, third or fourth year:

I. Language

23.  Stylistics
24.  Phonetics and Intonation
25.  History of the Russian Language (1952)

II. Literature

30.  Literary Masters of the Nineteenth Century (1952)
31.  Contemporary Russian Literature
32.  Survey of Russian Literature to 1800 (1952)
33.  Russian Poetry of the Nineteenth Century
34.  Development of Russian Drama
35.  Leo Tolstoy: Writer and Moralist
36.  Russian Short Story
37.  Literary Criticism and Social Thought
38.  Fyodor Dostoevsky: His Works and Influence (1952)
39.  Maxim Gorky: His Works and Influence

III. Civilization

40.  Political and Social History of Russia to 1917
41.  Contemporary Russia (1952)
42.  History of Russian Art (1952)
Admission   Students may enter without examination and without being candidates for degrees. No student, however, will be admitted unless he can satisfy the Director of his ability to profit by the instruction offered. In the students' own interest, an effort will be made to place them in classes best suited to them.

Use of Russian   To qualify for admission, students must be able and willing to speak only Russian during the entire session, even in their rooms and off campus. At the official opening of the School each student will be required to pledge his word of honor to observe this rule. Although it is the duty of the faculty to enforce this rule at all times, their sympathetic encouragement to use the language freely will, in a short time, make it appear as the only language natural in the congenial, friendly Russian atmosphere. The School reserves the right to dismiss, at any time, students who willfully break the rule. (See page 4).

Living Accommodations   Starr Hall and Hillcrest will again be used by the Russian School. The dining room will be in Gifford Hall Recreation Room, where students will eat together in small groups, each table presided over by a member of the faculty. A system of rotation at meals provides opportunity for becoming better acquainted with each other and the faculty. The large Social Hall in the Student Union Building will be used exclusively by the Russian School.

Activities All extra-curricular activities play an important part in mastering the language, and students are expected to participate actively in them. The schedule of classes is arranged to leave the afternoons free for study and recreation. Picnics, excursions to nearby lakes and mountains, "vecherinki" with musical and dramatic entertainments, lectures by instructors and guest speakers, informal singing, and Russian movies, will provide ample recreational activity. Regular evenings for study of Russian dances have been set aside. Weekly sings will be held in the Social Hall. Several plays will be staged under the direction of Anastasia Feodorova-Pressman.

The beautiful scenery, cool evenings, and restful atmosphere make the informal, spontaneous get-togethers particularly delightful to students and faculty.

GENERAL INFORMATION

Credits All courses offer two credits toward the M.A. and D.M.L. degrees with the exception of course 1 which offers credit toward the A.B. degree. See also page 5.

Degree Requirements The following courses, or their equivalents, are required for the M.A. degree:

- Group I—21 or 23, 22 or 36 (Group II); and one of the following: 24, 25, 60 (Group IV).
- Group II—31 and 32; one survey course of the 19th century (30, 33, 34); one course on an individual author (35, 38, 39).
- Group III—Two courses (40, 41, 42, 43, 44).

The following courses are required for the D.M.L., in addition to the foregoing:

- A civilization course; a course on one of the individual authors; 30, 33, 34 and 37; and all of the following not taken previously: 24, 25, 60. For all other requirements, see p. 5 and the special leaflet for D.M.L. candidates.

Books In addition to textbooks, the Russian Bookstore, located in Starr Hall, carries classics and up-to-date novels, poetry, drama, and non-fiction. General supplies, and textbooks published in this country, may be purchased at the College Bookstore.

Realia Collection The purpose of this collection is to acquaint prospective teachers with visual aids which may prove helpful in their teaching; also to display material illustrative of the Russian creative genius—pictures, sculpture, icons, costumes, architectural models, objets d'art, etc. The Collection, housed in the Russian School Bookstore in Starr Hall, will be open during regular Bookstore hours.

Phonetics Laboratory  Russian School students are urged to avail themselves of the splendid facilities afforded by the Phonetics Laboratory, located in the Chemistry Building. In class groups or individually, students have access to the most up-to-date equipment for speech recording, playbacks with earphones, and separate practice rooms. The laboratory is open at regular hours, in charge of a technician. Mr. Pressman will be available for assisting all those interested in improving their speech.

Self-Help  Students may assist in defraying their expenses by waiting on table in the Russian dining hall, or by otherwise assisting the Director. The remuneration for waiting on table is board. Those interested should apply to the Director before April 15. Appointments will be announced about May 1.

Scholarships  A limited number of scholarships of $50 and $75 is available to qualified students. Only students who would be unable to attend without such financial assistance are eligible. These scholarships will be awarded on the basis of need, merit, scholastic promise, and interests. Application must be made to the Director before April 15. Awards will be announced about May 1.

Arrival  Students arriving on the afternoon train on Friday, Saturday, or Sunday (June 27, 28, 29) will be met at the station by a representative of the Russian School. Students will enroll on Friday, June 27 (10:00–12:00, 2:00–5:00) and on Saturday, June 28 (9:00–12:00, 2:00–5:30), and should do so as soon as possible after arriving. Formal opening of the School will be held Sunday, June 29 at 8:00 p.m. Classes will begin Monday, June 30 at 8:00 a.m. (See also page 6.) The first meal will be served Friday, June 27 at 12:30.

Correspondence  Correspondence concerning courses, credits, degrees, and admission to the School should be addressed to Dr. Mischa H. Fayer, Director of the Russian School, Middlebury College, Middlebury, Vermont. Correspondence concerning rooms, fees, and other general information should be addressed to the Secretary of the Language Schools, Middlebury College.
Escuela Española

(FROM JUNE 27—AUGUST 14)

In this the 36th year of its existence, the Spanish School will endeavor to maintain the high standards which in the past have made Middlebury an important center of Hispanic Studies. Teachers, and all those interested in the language and culture of Spain and Spanish America will find here a well-rounded program in which an intensive study of language is combined with advanced courses on the most important aspects of literature and civilization.

The Director is happy to announce the appointment of Augusto Centeno and Aníbal Sánchez Reulet as Visiting Professors. Professor Centeno will offer a course on Main Features of the Spanish Language, and another one on the Art of Galdós. Professor Sánchez Reulet will teach courses on Contemporary Hispanic Thought and on Modern Hispanic Art.

New members of the Faculty are Professors Manuel Alcalá of Bryn Mawr College, who will offer a course on The Spanish-American Essay, and Miguel Pizzaro of Brooklyn College, who will offer a course on Realism in Spanish Literature. Professors Camila Henríquez-Ureña, and Sofía Novoa are returning to Middlebury after several years absence.

COURSES OF STUDY

I. Language

A. ELEMENTARY PHONETICS. Intended for students who have never studied phonetics. This course will attack the problem of pronunciation from a scientific viewpoint. Each student will practice daily exercises under the personal direction of the instructor. (Undergraduate credit only.)

8:00 Sr. Fernández.

B. INTERMEDIATE GRAMMAR. A thorough and systematic review of Spanish grammar, syntax, and basic vocabulary; constant oral and written practice. This course is intended for students who have only an incomplete mastery of the language and who would be incapable of the intensive work required in Course 2. (Undergraduate credit only.)

9:00 Sra. del Rio.

C. ELEMENTS OF ORAL PRACTICE. For students who are unaccustomed to hearing or speaking Spanish although they may have an extensive "passive" vocabulary. (Undergraduate credit only.)

8:00, 9:00, 10:00.

Sra. de Álvarez, and Srita. Unamuno.

1. ORAL WORK AND SELF-EXPRESSION IN SPANISH. Designed to help students in the process of gaining a better command of the language by requiring the use of a varied vocabulary and at the same time accuracy of expression.

8:00, 9:00, 10:00, 11:00.

Sr. Álvarez, and Srita. Novoa.

2. ADVANCED GRAMMAR. A systematic review of the fundamental principles of grammar. Abundant practice is provided in writing idiomatic Spanish and in the practical application of grammatical principles.

8:00, 9:00, 10:00, and 11:00. Srtas. Curtis-Guajardo, and Bourgeal.

3. ADVANCED COMPOSITION. This course aims to help students gain assurance in writing correct Spanish and is designed for those who, having a good grammatical foundation, lack precision in the direct application of that knowledge.

10:00, 11:00, and 12:00. Srita. Henríquez Ureña, Srs. González López, and Pizarro.

4. PHONETICS. A continued study of practical phonetics, combining theoretical lessons with practical exercises, for the improvement of the student's pronunciation.

9:00 and 11:00. Srita. Navarro.

5. SPANISH INTONATION. The idiomatic stamp of pronunciation and the exact meaning of sentences depend on the accuracy of the intonation. This course will deal with the principles necessary to obtain that accuracy.

11:00 Sr. Fernández.

7. STYLISTICS. A study of the evolution of structure and style in Spanish prose through analysis of texts; practical exercises in oral and written composition.

11:00 Srita. Henríquez Ureña.

8. HISTORY OF THE SPANISH LANGUAGE. This course will give specific information about the principal problems of Spanish philology, as a necessary background for teachers of this language.

9:00. Sr. Navarro.
18. MAIN FEATURES OF THE SPANISH LANGUAGE. An interpretation of the idiomatic and psychological aspects of Spanish as a living language. Lectures about the problems involved, followed by an analytical comparison of chosen English and Spanish texts and expressions.

51. SPANISH METRICS. The program of this course will cover a general introduction to the essential factors of Metrics, and a descriptive and historical explanation of the form, origin, and development of the verses and strophes used in each period of Spanish poetry. (One credit.)

II. Methods

10. METHODS OF TEACHING SPANISH. A consideration of the common problems confronting the teacher of Spanish in his classroom work. Lectures, reports, and discussions. Present trends in textbooks and materials are studied. (One Credit).

15. HISTORY OF SPANISH-AMERICAN CIVILIZATION. A survey course on the main trends of the civilization of the Spanish American countries, from the pre-hispanic days up to the present. Special attention will be given to historical events in their connection with the development of culture in its various manifestations.

16. SPANISH CULTURE FROM 1680 UNTIL 1833. A study of a critical period in the development of modern Spain, from the end of the "siglo de oro," up to the Romantic revival; the rise of modern liberalism in Spain and the awakening of a new national consciousness after the disintegration of the Spanish Empire. The problems and tendencies of the epoch will be studied in relation to the literature of the 18th Century, and the influence of European enlightenment in Spain.

20. THE DEVELOPMENT OF SPANISH LITERATURE. This course is intended to give the student a clear view of Spanish literature rather than a list of names and dates. Its aim is to distinguish and classify the principal directions of Spanish literature from its origins to our time.

21. SPANISH LYRIC POETRY FROM THE 16th TO THE 20th CENTURY. The purpose of this course is to give the student a complete view of the poetical works of the modern period. A study of the personality and significance of the most representative poets from Boscán and Garcilaso de la Vega up to Bécquer and Jorge Guillén.

28. THE ART OF GALDÓS. A critical and aesthetic study of Galdós' works in relation to the general theory and art of the novel.

31. SPANISH AMERICAN LITERATURE. A general analysis of Spanish American literature from its early beginnings to the present day, showing the influences of geography, time, and place. Discussions, lectures, and collateral reading on the most important phases.

41. SPANISH THEATRE OF THE 16th AND 17th CENTURIES. The plan of this course is: A brief outline of the Spanish theatre of the medieval ages; a study of the different tendencies of the dramatic activity of Spain during the 16th and 17th centuries; a characterization of the different epochs of its evolution and of the authors who, with Lope de Vega and Calderón de la Barca, contributed to the creation of a national theatre.

9:00. Sr. Casalduero.

43. REALISM IN SPANISH LITERATURE. An analysis and interpretation of realistic elements in Spanish literature from the Middle Ages to the present, with special emphasis on the Picaresque novel.

11:00. Sr. Pizarro.

53. SPANISH AMERICAN ESSAY IN THE 19th CENTURY. A study of the leading essayists in Spanish America, such as Bello, Lastarria, Sarmiento, Alberdi, Montalvo, Hostos, Justo Siera, Martí, Varona.

12:00. Sr. Alcalá.

56. CONTEMPORARY HISPANIC THOUGHT. A study of the main trends in Spanish and Spanish American contemporary ideas, through the analysis of the works of Ganivet, Unamuno, Machado, Ortega y Gasset, Varona, Rodó, Ingenieros, Korn, Vaz Ferreira, Caso, Vasconcelos and Romero.

11:00. Sr. Sánchez Reulet.

SPECIAL LECTURE SERIES

MODERN HISPANIC ART.

A series of illustrated lectures on the work of outstanding modern artists. (One credit) Open to all students. Those wishing credit must register for the course and write a paper at the end of the term.

Tuesday and Thursday evenings 7:15. Sr. Sánchez Reulet.

Credits Two credits or semester hours will be allowed for each course unless otherwise specified. (See Credits, page 5). Course 3 may, with the consent of the Director, be taken a second summer for credit, since the material of this course is varied each year.

Requirements for Degrees Candidates for the Master’s Degree must pass, before the completion of their work, an advanced course in each of the following subjects: Oral Practice, Language, Phonetics, and Methods. Courses 1, 2, 3, 4, and 10 fulfill these requirements. In addition, at least 10 credits must be earned on the fields of Literature and Civilization. Students who have transferred credit for an equivalent course taken elsewhere may request release from the requirement. For the degree of D.M.L., see page 5. With the exception of certain basic courses, which are offered every summer, the program changes yearly in a cyclic form. All candidates for degrees must send to the Dean, before the beginning of the session in which they expect to receive their degree, the transcripts of their A.B. degree and of any courses which they wish to offer for transfer credit.

Books General supplies and text books published in this country may be purchased in the College Bookstore. The Librería of the Spanish School is located in the Social room of Hepburn Hall and is open regularly every afternoon. Here students may secure books printed abroad.

Library The Spanish Library consists at present of over 5,000 titles comprising such subjects as language, literature, history, and civilization.
During the past years, the library has been the recipient of many gifts from learned societies abroad, and from friends of the school. The most representative periodicals of Spain and Spanish America, as well as publications in this country dealing with the Spanish language and literature, are received.

LIFE IN THE SCHOOL

Use of Spanish  The only language used in the school is Spanish; therefore, no student will be admitted to the school unless he is able and willing to use only Spanish while in attendance. Each student is required to pledge his word of honor to observe this rule. The Director reserves the right to dismiss students who willfully break this rule.

Spanish Dormitories  One of the most attractive features of the school is the friendliness which exists between the faculty and students, in no small measure due to the fact that the Director and instructors, as well as all students, reside in the dormitories. Gifford Hall, the newest and one of the finest dormitories on the campus, will be occupied by the Spanish School. Double suites, connecting singles, and single rooms are available.

In Hepburn Hall, built on the highest point of the campus, the rooms are en suite with a study for each two students. All bedrooms are single, and each suite is connected with a lavatory. A spacious and delightful garden surrounds the southern exposure of Hepburn where students may lounge or study.

Spanish Dining Rooms  All members of the School take their meals in the dining rooms of Hepburn and Gifford Halls. Meal hours are conversation hours and also provide students with an opportunity of becoming better acquainted. To facilitate this, they are required to change tables according to a system of rotation.

Activities The activities outside of the recitation room constitute an important feature of the life of the student. These activities are designed not merely to furnish entertainment, but also to give the student an opportunity to become better acquainted with various manifestations of Spanish customs and life. Weekly programs are arranged so as not to interfere with the student's study and relaxation. These short programs include dance or musical recitals; dramatic or literary entertainments; readings, or informal talks by members of the faculty; Spanish games and plays; folk songs and dances; and Spanish moving-pictures.

Arrival Beginning Friday morning, June 27, students will be met at the station by a Spanish School representative who will direct them to taxis and assist with arrangements for luggage. As soon as possible, students should report to the Director to enroll for their courses and to receive other information. (See pages 6 and 7.)

The first official assembly of the Spanish School will be held on Sunday evening, June 29, at 7:30 o'clock. All students are required to attend. Classes will begin at eight o'clock, Monday morning, June 30.

Scholarships Several scholarships of fifty dollars each will be available this summer. Only students who have never attended the Middlebury Spanish School, and who would be unable to attend without such financial assistance, are eligible. These awards will be made on the basis of need, merit, and scholastic promise. Application should be made to the Dean before April 15. The awards will be announced about May 1.

The Juan A. Centeno Memorial Scholarship was established in the summer of 1949 by the students and faculty of the Middlebury Spanish Summer School, in memory of the beloved teacher who was Director of the School for fifteen years. The fund is still growing, and further contributions will be gladly received. The income from this permanent fund will be used each summer to provide a scholarship for a specially deserving student in the Spanish School.

The Lena D. Wolff Scholarship was established in the summer of 1950 by Mrs. Wolff. This fund will be used to provide a scholarship each summer for a deserving colored student who wishes to further his or her studies in the Spanish language and literature.

Self-Help A limited number of students are provided an opportunity to earn their board by acting as waiters and waitresses in the Spanish dining halls. A speaking knowledge of Spanish is essential for one of these positions. Those interested should apply to the Dean before April 15; awards will be announced by May 1.

Graduate School in Spain Middlebury College has also inaugurated a Graduate School of Spanish in Spain. A selected group of graduate students will spend the academic year enrolled at the University of Madrid, working... under the supervision of a resident representative of Middlebury College. The Middlebury Master of Arts degree will be awarded to those who successfully complete an approved program. For fuller information, see the inside back cover of this bulletin.

Correspondence  Communications regarding admission, courses, credits and other academic information should be addressed to Prof. Samuel Guarnaccia, Dean of the Spanish School, Middlebury College, Middlebury, Vermont. Correspondence concerning fees and rooms should be addressed to the Secretary of the Language Schools, Middlebury College.
The Graduate Schools of French in France and Spanish in Spain

Middlebury College also operates a Graduate School of French in France, and a Graduate School of Spanish in Spain. Forty-five American students are now enrolled in the University of Paris under this plan, and twenty-two at the University of Madrid.

The students spend the academic year on a coordinated program of advanced instruction in linguistics, phonetics, literature, history, fine arts and social institutions. These courses are followed in the various institutes or other divisions of the Universities of Paris or Madrid. The students work under the close guidance and supervision of a resident representative of Middlebury College. At the close of the year, final examinations are administered under his direction, and the successful candidates receive the Middlebury Master of Arts degree, in addition to any foreign certificates or diplomas which they may be able to earn.

A preliminary summer of preparation at the Middlebury Summer School is required, and only those who prove themselves qualified are allowed to enroll. Members of the group are treated as mature graduate students. They make their own arrangements for transportation, board and room, with the advice and guidance of the Middlebury Director. The director facilitates worthwhile social contacts, and assists their plans for travel, visits to museums, and attendance at theaters and concerts. Each member is officially enrolled as a graduate student at Middlebury College, and pays his tuition fee to the college; this covers all enrollment, examination, and other academic fees in the foreign university. Veterans may use their G.I. credits under this plan.

Teachers or graduate students who are interested in this program are invited to write for the complete bulletin containing detailed information to:
